January 2022 GENERAL INFORMATION

Greetings NEOMC Friends,

I hope this January 2022 newsletter finds each of you and your families safe and healthy. I hope many of you were able to spend some time with family and friends during the holidays. It sure feels like time flew in December.

Our Christmas Party was well attended and fun was had by all. Special thanks to all that contributed to the success of our party; Diane Geul, Diane Bray, Rick Madden, Marilyn Wanachek, Paul the DJ, Danny and Jeannie Derreberry, Laurel Caslow, and any others that I may have forgot.

The new year is here and so is the continuation of the Covid virus, with Omicron more contagious than the Delta variant. With that being said your leadership team has decided to cancel our rescheduled January 12th Monthly Meeting.

I spoke with The Venue's Beth Genovese who reported that her staff has contracted the virus. She stated she was out for eight days. Danny and Jeannie Derreberry's physician recommended against them attending our meeting so we decided to cancel it with everyone's best interest in mind.

Our February Monthly Meeting is scheduled for Wednesday February 2nd. I hope to keep this event active.

Now onto business.

The 2022 NEOMC membership dues are now overdue if you have not paid. Dues are $25.00 for you and spouse/significant other and children under 18. Please make check payable to NEOMC and mail to: Peggy Moeller, 6712 Hillside Road, Independence, OH. 44131
A thank you to those that have renewed.

The Leadership Team wishes all a safe and enjoyable 2022 New Year. Let's have some fun this year.

Please stay safe and healthy,
Jim
